Premiums

STAKE a dime on the Camel Cigarettes, but don't look for premiums or coupons, as the cost of the tobaccos in them prohibits their use.

Camel Cigarettes—20 for 10c—are a blend of choice quality Turkish and domestic tobaccos. They do not leave that cigarette taste and cannot bite your tongue or parch your throat.

You haven't money enough to buy a more delightful cigarette.

If your dealer can't supply you, send $10 for one package of 1,000 for a service charge of $1.00 and postage prepaid. After smoking one package, if you don't find it CAMEL as represented, return the package to us and we will refund your money.

WANT RELIEF FUND ORGANIZED HERE FOR BELGIANS

New York Executive Committee Seeks Co-operation from Commercial Club; Say Conditions Defy Description.

That Belgian relief committee organized in this city has been suggested to the Commercial club by the organizers of the national Belgian relief fund in New York. Secretary Thomas A. Sikes of the Commercial club received a letter from Edward E. Lyman, publicity manager for the executive committee of the fund, which, in part, says:

"The immensity and magnitude of the need in that war-wrecked country can hardly be overestimated. You know the story in part—the news-sheets have been telling it for days. But the actual conditions defy description of realization."

"This committee is working in close co-operation with the London American committee, of which Ambassador Pusey is chairman, with the official representatives of the United States in Belgium and Holland, and with experienced workers on the ground."

"An executive supply committee here in New York, representing both the London and New York committees, is turning funds into food supplies for direct shipment on especially

INDIAN CASES IN FEDERAL COURT TOMORROW

Alleged Violators of Liquor Regulations to Be Tried; Bank Case Set for Wednesday, Keene Up Thursday.

Two Indian liquor cases will be the first criminal trials of the Albuquerque term of the federal court, which will open in the federal building tomorrow, with Judge W. H. Page presiding.

The prisoners to be arraigned are Nicolas Garcia, who is accused of selling liquor to an Indian, and Michael Chavez, who is charged with bringing liquor up an Indian reservation.

Two motions in law cases will be argued. The case of Patricio Trujillo, also accused of liquor law violation, is set for tomorrow, but may not be brought into trial. The case of S. Mariano has been continued.

On Thursday what promises to be the most sensational of the criminal trials of the term will begin. Richard and Frank Keene, the defendant, is charged with an offense under the Mann act.

Another case that promises something of sensationalism is that of Ruth V. Shipley, alias Mama Bell, who will be tried November 25.

The case of Gen. Jose Yanez Salazar, charged with perjury, is set for trial November 30.

Wednesday the trial of John B. Oldfield, charged with making false entries in the books of the Sun National Bank of Artesia, of which he was cashier, will be held.

United States District Attorney Burkhardt will direct all the cases for the government.

Regular meeting of the Monte Largo Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Dressing better, or different if you wish, than the majority do, will cause people to turn around for a second look, naturally bringing forth remarks that are pleasing to hear.

You needn't look very far to find the necessary clothing; a few minutes at our store will convince you.

Clothcraft clothes are a little different because they offer such pronounced values at $12.50 to $22.00.
